

Michel Assouline

About: Michel is a graduate of the French National Equestrian School, home of the Cadre Noir in Saumur and gained a vast international experience in the USA, France, Germany and the United Kingdom as an international dressage rider and trainer. Fluent in French, German and English, Michel has become a highly-respected dressage trainer, coaching numerous dressage riders of all levels across Europe up to Grand Prix at International level. On May 2017 Michel started a new chapter as USEF Head of Coach Development & Para Dressage Technical Advisor. Michel resides in Exxes, England, where he runs a Dressage facility with his family.

The Dressage Foundation: This wonderful clinic is supported by a grant from The Dressage Foundation! Please visit the Dressage Foundation at <https://www.dressagefoundation.org> to see all the great things the foundation does to promote Dressage. We appreciate this grant to help bring this clinic opportunity to us!

Dreizler International Clinician Fund: The purpose of the Dreizler International Clinician Fund is to provide financial support for equestrian organizations, dressage clubs, and owners of private facilities who are hosting educational events with clinicians from countries outside of the United States.
